Dedication

TO OUR TEACHERS, whose sympathy, foresight, and wisdom have guided us through the past years, for all their efforts and accomplishments, we, the students of P. H. S., do in this year of 1945 dedicate "The Oriole."

Preface

WHEREVER the students of Pulaski High School are they take pride in their colors, orange and black, which are the colors of the Baltimore Oriole. And so in our yearbook THE ORIOLE we have chosen for our theme the life of an oriole family.

For division pages our art editor has drawn four scenes from bird life, which we feel are symbolic of certain phases of our school life.

Just as the mother oriole builds a home for her family, so do our teachers help to make the school a home for us.

In the nest the orioles are fed and protected by the parents until they are old enough to care for themselves as our teachers guide and advise us throughout our school life.

During our school year we learn to do many things which we often term activities. The little orioles must not be dependent upon their parents; therefore they learn to fly.

As the birds are grateful for their existence, we are grateful to those patrons who have made this book possible.

The Staff presents the twenty-fourth edition of THE ORIOLE.

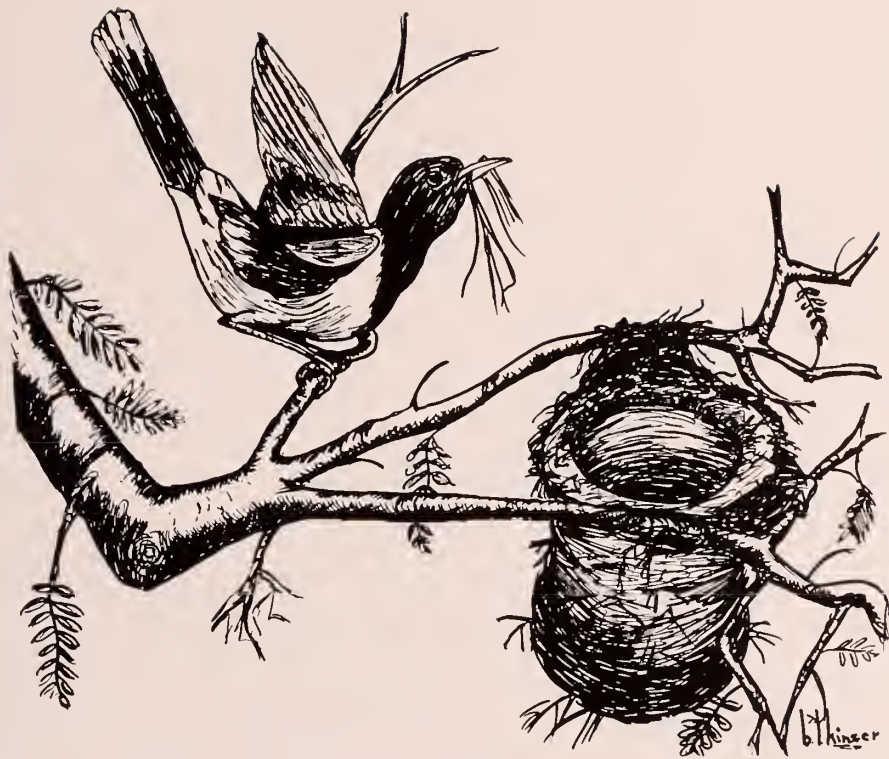

Happy Nesting!

FOUR years ago this group of seniors was introduced into the high school, little knowing the work, thrills, sorrows, and happiness before them. Now that they realize it, they look back on their school years, remembering the little things that make a school year successful.

To Mrs. Luther Farris, Miss Clara Mae Bolt, and Mr. Foy Aust, they leave their appreciation for their excellent guidance and leadership for the senior group.

As each senior leaves P. H. S. and takes his place in the world, he will take with him many happy memories of his achievements and experiences.

BOBBY PAINTER.....President
 CHARLES STAFFORD.....Vice-President
 MARY LOUISE JAMES.....Secretary
 JIM CARRAS.....Treasurer

It has been three years since these juniors entered P. H. S. as freshmen. They have endured many trials and have worked hard, but they have not forgotten their title of "Jolly Juniors."

It was the junior class who led the school in the Community War Fund contributions. They also gave liberally to the Junior Red Cross, March of Dimes, and the Tuberculosis Fund.

The juniors have entered into the social life at P. H. S. as well as they have carried on their studies. They have joined many clubs of the school and have served on the football and basketball teams.

They have been very ably led by their sponsors, Mrs. Curtis Mast, Miss Mamie Roberts, Miss Ruth Simpson, and Miss Eula Barnhart.

The "Jolly Juniors" are looking forward with pleasure to the big year ahead, when they will become "Dignified Seniors" and then graduate.

THE sophomores returned to school a little more serious-minded than they were last year. In a world at war, they have been good soldiers on the home front as they have helped to collect scrap paper and contributed to the Red Cross and various other drives.

They have all shared their pleasures and troubles with their home room teachers, who are Mrs. Dobyms, Mrs. Totten, Miss Spradlin, and Mr. Largent.

The sophomores have worked hard this year in order to be well prepared for their junior year as they gradually climb the ladder to graduation.

Freshman Class Officers . . .

AS the school bell rang on September 7, a group of excited students entered into a new phase of life—a life tilled with perplexity, but also happiness. That group was the freshmen of P. H. S.

Since that memorable day many changes have taken place. Life at first wasn't all "peaches and cream." New regulations had to be learned and new habits formed.

The honor of leading the class through its many trials and tribulations was bestowed upon Jimmy Lowman. Under his capable leadership and with the assistance of the other officers, history has been made at P. H. S.

Much of the credit for a successful year goes to our faithful home room teachers, Miss Pendleton, Mrs. Rollins, Miss Dalton, Miss Painter, Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Bowers; because of them, our work took on new meaning. Now as we come to the end of the year, we do so with a feeling of regret but also with a sense of accomplishment.

... Sixth Grades

Even though the sixth grade is the youngest part of our student body, it is a very energetic and interested group of boys and girls, numbering around 200.

This year the sixth grades, as well as the seventh grades, have been active in doing some valuable work through their Students Cooperative Association. The officers and representatives of this organization have led in numerous worthwhile activities through their various committees—health improvement, welfare, program, publicity, and war effort. They have shown much interest in assisting in the magazine campaign, the scrap paper drive, and the Junior Red Cross drive, the Infantile Paralysis fund, the purchase of War Stamps and Bonds, and other phases of the school program.

These boys and girls are guided by Miss Eunetta Osborne, Mrs. B. Bevins Rutherford, Mrs. Marvin Board, and Miss Ruby Graham.

THE annual staff and sponsors of the 1945 Oriole spent an enjoyable and, they believe, a successful year of work on this annual.

Our editor-in-chief, Emerson Knapp, and business manager, Carl Smith, were chosen from last year's junior class. The remaining members were appointed by the editor and business-manager.

The staff was fortunate to have such capable sponsors as Miss Nettie Bowers and Mr. Foy Aust.

The liaison between the teachers and the students is the Student Council. This council serves a dual purpose.

In conjunction with being a medium, it strives to improve our school generally. Some tangible evidence of the hard work of this group can be seen in the following list of things that the Student Council has sponsored: boys stationed at fire hose during drills, new reels for the fire hose, broken seats removed from the auditorium, many free assemblies, eight movies, a war bond campaign, selling of second hand books, letters to the boys in the service, and a trophy cabinet.

Those are the physical gains alone. It is important to say something about the mental attitude of the school. Pulaski High has continued its tradition of good school spirit without wavering for an instant. This is more significant than all the other things of a physical nature.

The annual Farmers' Ball, sponsored by the Council, was an amazing success. Girls in gingham dresses and boys in plaid shirts and over-alls danced gaily in and out among the fodder and the straw. Because of the lively spirit that was prevalent, the dance will not be forgotten by any of those who attended.

The Council consists of all club presidents and home room representatives. The President, Albert Smith, and the Vice-President, John Lyons, were elected by the student body, while the Secretary, Helen Rorrer, and the Treasurer, Martha Ann Board, were elected by the Council. Miss Clara Mae Bolt was its most capable sponsor.

The success of this year's council can be directly attributed to the excellent cooperation between the faculty and the students.

THE National Honor Society began its second year in Pulaski High School as a senior club. The members were chosen not only for their scholastic ability and offices held, but for leadership and character.

The leaders for this year were as follows: President, Sarah Virginia Tice; Vice-President, John Lyons; Secretary, Helen Landis; and Treasurer, Martha Ann Board. They were ably assisted by the other five members.

The club started off with many plans and ideas for the coming year. One of the first things it sponsored was a noon dance in the gymnasium. In December it gave two one-act plays for both the grades and the high school. Not forgetting the war effort, they filled Red Cross boxes to be sent overseas to children in liberated Europe.

The new members were taken from the junior class and initiated near the end of school. They were honored with a supper held at the Woman's Club.

The Beta Club is one of the honorary organizations of Pulaski High School. Its motto is "Let us lead by serving others." Its purpose is to promote scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and character.

Our sponsor was Miss Lynnwood Kinder. Our officers were Helen Landis, president; Ben Lake Critzer, vice-president; Georgia Tickle, secretary; and John Lyons, treasurer. During the year the following new members were taken into the club: Jim Carras, Jean Anne Gibson, Eleanor Hall, Betty Jo Hanks, Benny Jones, Jean Larson, Ann Laughon, Pauline Mooney, C. W. Stewart, Nealda Stewart, Dorothy Stoots, and Elizabeth Stoots.

The Beta Club gave two Thanksgiving baskets to indigent families this year.

On March 1st, the club sponsored a stunt program in which the four classes of the high school participated. An award of five dollars was given to the senior class for presenting the best stunt, which traced the American dance from its earliest beginning to the present day.

The Beta Club must also be given credit for the delightful Kiddie Dance which was held in the gymnasium during April.

THE Pulaski chapter of the National Junior Honor Society was organized in January, 1945.

The society was originally known as the "Sophres," the name being taken from the words sophomore and freshman, but changed its title to the National Junior Honor Society this year.

Only those freshmen and sophomores with a B average and who are outstanding in school citizenship, service, leadership, and character are eligible for membership.

Among the outstanding activities of the year was the packing of Educational Gift Boxes for the Junior Red Cross to be sent to the children in war-torn countries.

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character" is the purpose of the Girls' Hi-Y, one of the honorary organizations of the school.

Soon after the beginning of school the Girls' Hi-Y held its first meeting. Their officers were: Tiny Austin, president; Sarah Hayter, vice-president; Laura Elkins, secretary; and Frances Hinson, treasurer. They chose Miss Clara Mae Bolt and Miss Eula Barnhart as their sponsors.

Throughout the year the girls attended church in a body once a month. They had several joint meetings with the Boys' Hi-Y. On October 27, the club gave a dance in the gym after the Marion Football Game.

During the year the club gave an interesting program in assembly and held the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. At the end of the year they welcomed the new members into the club by sponsoring a hayride.

THE Boys' Hi-Y club, the only boys' organization in the school which stands for Christian fellowship, had a busy year helping the school to prosper.

At the beginning of the year, Johnny Rollins was elected president with Mr. Raymond Cure, sponsor. Other officers were Bobby Painter, secretary and Bates Pauley, treasurer.

In the past two years, more than twenty members of the Hi-Y have entered the Armed Forces. We highly honor them.

For several years it has been the duty of the Hi-Y to raise and lower the flag each day. This was continued this year.

Meetings were held every other Thursday, and the members attended church in a body the following Sunday.

Pennants of orange and black were sold by the Hi-Y to encourage school spirit. This was a great success.

At the end of the school year the Hi-Y will leave a gift as a token of appreciation to the school. The gift will be determined by the financial status of the club.

On March 16, the Boys' Hi-Y held a Saint Patrick's Day dance, for which the gym was decorated in green and white paper. This dance was enjoyed by the school and by several parents who attended.

THIS is the second year that credit has been given for a class in chorus. The girls in this club are under the direction of Mrs. Luther Farris.

The group sponsored a bake sale in November, which was fun besides being of financial benefit to the club.

The Christmas program on December 15 was touching and beautiful under colored lights.

On December 15, at 9 o'clock, the members held a Christmas breakfast at the Home Economics Cottage. Lighted candles were used and gifts were exchanged.

This is the second year that this group has presented an operetta. "The Beauty Contest," by Theodosia Paynter and G. A. Grant-Schaefer, presented in March, was humorous and clever. The music was catchy, tuneful, and different. The entire Chorus Club took part in this performance.

The girls took part in the Spring Carnival and added much to its beauty.

The Mother's Day Tea at the Home Economics Cottage was a delightful affair. Each girl presented a red carnation to her mother before the program.

The recital given in May was an unusual affair. Many different types of songs were used. For the first group the girls wore white robes; for the second group they were dressed as typical Americans from the different sections of the country; for the last group of sentimental ballads evening dress was worn.

In addition to the many social activities, the members of the Chorus Club learned to work together as a team, to cooperate, to sight read, and to watch tone quality and volume.

SEPTEMBER 13th marked an important date for the Prim Priscilla girls as they met to elect a sponsor and 13 new members.

Those elected were Joan Baker, Mary Clare Dougherty, Betty Ann Hall, Eleanor Hall, Betty Jo Hanks, Jane Hiltzheimer, Sabra Humphrey, Betty Lee Kinzer, Georgia Marshall, Hilda Meredith, Iris Sutphin and Peggy Wirt. These girls were initiated at an overnight stay at the Home Economics Cottage.

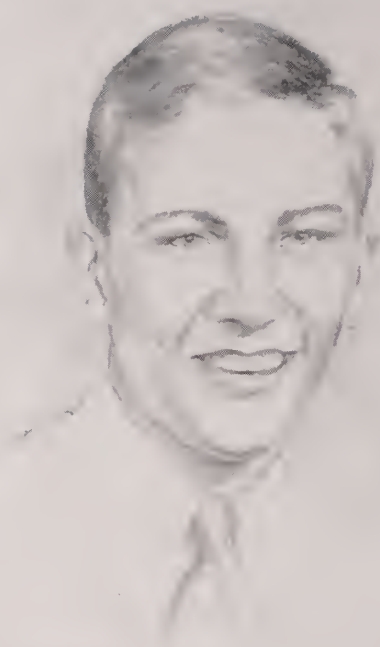

Those members remaining from last year were Martha Ann Board, president; Mildred Elkins, vice-president; Helen Rorrer, secretary; Laura Elkins, treasurer; Elizabeth Crockett, publicity chairman; Stella Dalton, Helen Landis, Ruth Lyons, Cathy Hinton, Alice Schrader, Sarah Virginia Tice, Freda Webb and Julia Webb.

The club sponsored the first formal dance of the year on December 8th. Harry Davis and his orchestra furnished the music for the evening. The dance was well attended and was one that will be long remembered.

The girls were very fortunate indeed to have such a charming and capable sponsor as Miss Nettie Bowers. The success of the year's work was largely due to her untiring leadership and understanding.

The Spring Carnival theme for this year was Spring. The girls were dressed in pastel evening dresses and the boys in tuxedos. The entertainment was supplied by the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Chorus Club, and Court.

Cheer Leaders . . .

Iris Sutphin, Stella Dalton, Catherine Hinton, Mildred Elkins, Laura Elkins, Virginia Amburn.

YEA, Students! Say, Students!

What did you think of our cheer leaders? Well, we thought they were better than ever this year, and our hearts swelled with pride as we sat on the sidelines and watched their white-clad figures moving in perfect unison and leading their fellow students in rousing cheers for the home team.

Our peppy little head cheer leader, Mildred Elkins, ably assisted by two other seniors, Laura Elkins and Catchy Hinton, a junior, Stella Dalton, a sophomore, Iris Sutphin, and a freshman, Virginia Amburn, really was "in the groove." New yells, synchronized motion, pretty uniforms, happy countenances, and good sportsmanship drew many favorable comments from the fans as well as the student body and the press.

PULASKI Hi may well be proud of its Pep Club. These are the girls who by their abundant enthusiasm, their devotion to their school, and their ever present gaiety and good spirits, have helped to make a success of all our games both at home and out of town.

An "offspring" of the Girls' Monogram Club, they, with the cooperation of their sister organization and the backing of the student body, put new life and vigor into their cheering section. Their energy was unbounded, and no task too hard to be undertaken by this group.

A dance was sponsored in the early part of this year by the club.

Officers included Catchy Hinton, president; Lila Sutphin, vice-president; Sabra Humphrey, secretary; and Eleanor Hall, treasurer.

More power to this grand group of morale builders!

STARTING the year well with nine members, the Boys' Monogram Club soon got under way with Coach Cure as sponsor. Carl Smith was elected president, R. A. Graham, vice-president, and Bates Pauley, secretary and treasurer.

The club was representative of the boys who had been awarded the varsity "P" for participation in one of the major sports.

Fifteen new members were added at the close of the football season.

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to forward athletics and sportsmanship in Pulaski High School.

We have reason to believe that these athletes will continue to uphold high standards of honor and good sportsmanship in the future just as they have in the past.

REPRESENTATIVE of athletic activities among the feminine sex of P. H. S. is the Girls' Monogram Club. Organized several years ago, it has continued to maintain a guiding influence in all sport circles and has set itself as a goal eagerly sought for by girl sports leaders.

Its officers are as follows: president, Cathy Hinton; vice-president, Lila Sutphin; secretary, Sabra Humphrey; treasurer, Eleanor Hall; sergeant at arms, Betty Ann Hall. Miss Elna Spradlin is the able sponsor of this organization.

Always prominent in school affairs, the club this year sponsored the election of cheer leaders, as well as taking care of many duties incident to, and part of, every football and basketball game. Their ideas, suggestions, and willingness to help, also contributed largely to the success of all social events during the year.

○ N August 25, Pulaski High started football practice for the season of 1944. With 44 boys out, there were only 4 returning as lettermen. The prospects looked good and Coach Raymond Cure was looking forward to a successful season.

The team was led by Bates Pauley, who played center. Winning 5 out of 8 games gave Pulaski a successful season compared with the season of 1943.

Although the trophy was lost to Wytheville High, the team showed fine sportsmanship through the entire season. The team as a whole played well, and much credit is due to Coach Raymond Cure.

The boys were coached by Fred Carrico, who has done a good job in getting these boys ready for the varsity next year.

THE team was composed of three lettermen, Sammy Lowman, Bates Pauley, and James Slaydon with four other players from the season before. Harry Silcox, Doug Mabe, Don Malone, R. A. Graham, Jimmy Wainwright, and John Owen came up from last year's junior varsity and showed up well.

Sammy Lowman was captain of the team until he left school. James Slaydon then took over the Orioles to lead with outstanding ability.

The Orioles were invited to the Class B Tournament at William Fleming on the 2nd and 3rd of March. They won the first game against Schoolfield, but were defeated by William Fleming and Radford, which left them a rank of fourth best team for this district.

The team played a clean, sporting season, and we were proud to have them represent our school.

GIRLS' Basketball was more enthusiastically received this year than ever before. Credit for this must be given to the intramural program. In this program, teams were selected from each class and much spirit and talent were shown during the round robin tournament.

The varsity team was then selected from these class teams.

These varsity girls were guided by their captain, Sarah Virginia Tice, and co-captain, Mildred Elkins, and coached by Miss Elna Spradlin.

The school is proud of the Girls' Basketball Team and the sportsmanship that they showed at all times. We were proud to have them represent our school.

THIS year's J. V. squad looks as if it has some good varsity prospects with Benny Jones, Jim Carras, Mac McCall, Eugene Swain, Donald Dillon, and Charles Midkiff among the best.

Four games, two with Radford and two with Christiansburg, were lost by the J. V.'s, but their gain in experience will be valuable for them on the varsity next year.

They played throughout the season in a clean, sportsmanship way and took their losses in a sporting manner.
